Listing property with one member lists it with every member. The member with whom property is listed advises the agent immediately to the custodian, at whose office every member receives a copy. No member is required to ask other than listed price without consent of owner. Commission to be paid to the member who was the first to have shown property to purchase. Any dispute as to whom commission shall be paid will be settled by the exchange, and property owners will have no trouble in that way. The cooperative plan and system of advertising will unquestionably appeal to all who have property to sell or exchange.

List at once with any member. All have same blanks.

LYON STANDS PAT

ON NAGLES SIDE
OF VOTE QUESTION

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

The various speakers to me admitted to the editor that this meeting is to be held in the secretaries of the various parties to present their platforms.

Mr. Lyon says he did not appear at the meeting as it against his will unless the speaker is prepared to speak according to his views. The speaker did not seem to be able to do this.

Many speakers discussed the question whether it is better to support the party which has the most members or the one which is more numerous.

Mr. Lyon says he did not appear at the meeting as it against his will unless the speaker is prepared to speak according to his views.
